Babel: Or the Necessity of Violence: An Arcane History of the Oxford Translators’ Revolution
By R. F. Kuang
(Harper Voyager, 9780063021433, $20, Aug. 29, Fantasy)
“Finishing a book like this is equal parts pleasure and pain: pleasure in reading something so striking and beautiful juxtaposed by the pain of it ending. Few books have brought tears to my eyes, Kuang’s Babel is now numbered among them.” —Manwell Leasing, Paragraphs Bookstore, Mount Vernon, OH

Heart of the Sun Warrior
By Sue Lynn Tan
(Harper Voyager, 9780063031371, $19.99, Aug. 29, Fantasy)
“This was such a satisfying sequel to Daughter of the Moon Goddess. The pacing is fantastic and the story is unpredictably magical and exciting. I really loved the world building and appreciated the romance.” —Hillary Smith, Black Walnut Books, Hudson Falls, NY

One Hundred Saturdays: Stella Levi and the Search for a Lost World
By Michael Frank, Maira Kalman (Illus.)
“Saturday after Saturday, Stella Levi’s story forms the lively, tragic tale that is One Hundred Saturdays. This is the best book I’ve read all year, and with Maira Kalman’s brilliant illustrations it may be the best book of the decade.” —Angie Tally, The Country Bookshop, Southern Pines, NC

Our Missing Hearts: A Novel
By Celeste Ng
(Penguin Books, 9780593492666, $18, Aug. 22, Fiction)
“Set in an uncomfortably plausible dystopian near-future, Our Missing Hearts pulls no punches. Ng wrestles with how to find hope for ourselves and our children against forces that bend toward authoritarianism and nationalism.” —Allyson Howard, Invitation Bookshop, Gig Harbor, WA

Secluded Cabin Sleeps Six: A Novel
By Lisa Unger
(Park Row, 9780778334224, $18.99, Aug. 15, Thriller)
“This has family drama, secrets and great characters — so clear your weekend. Every book establishes Lisa Unger as a fantastic thriller writer and storyteller. This will bring even more fans to her camp (or cabin!). She is in her prime!” —Laura Taylor, The Oxford Exchange, Tampa, FL

The Winners: A Novel
By Fredrik Backman
(Washington Square Press, 9781982112806, $19.99, Sep. 12, Fiction)
“I savored every page, every word of this well written story of a hockey community; love, death, marriage, human nature, and all for the love of Hockey. Fredrik Backman will take you out of the cold and into your heart.” —Karen Piacentini, Fenton’s Open Book, Fenton, MI

Now in paperback

Our Next Great Read
Find more bookseller recommendations at indieBound.org
Happiness Falls: A Novel
By Anggie Kim
(Hogarth, 9781984340215, $28, Aug. 29, Fiction)
"A fantastic blend of suspense, family relationships, and medical drama makes this book a winner. Mia is an utterly engaging narrator, and the plot twists will leave readers guessing until the final pages."
—Sarah Rettger, Porter Square Books, Cambridge, MA

Every Drop is a Man's Nightmare: Stories
By Megan Kamala Kakimoto
(Mariner, 9780358164741, $17, Aug. 29, Short Stories)
"Overflowing with female sexuality and Hawaiian mythology, Every Drop is a Man's Nightmare punches out one flawed hero after the next. Kakimoto gives us raw Hawaiian, one that exists far from the colonial romanticism often-promoted."
—Beth Shapiro, Skylark Bookshop, Columbus, OH

The Secret Hours: A Novel
By Hilary Leichter
(Morrow, 9781250186512, $27.99, Sept. 12, Fiction)
"This novel blew me away. Each successive story opens up the world a bit further, a dig deeper, much like the space-building theme at the collection's center. I loved these four fables and their exploration of endings and beginnings."
—Suzanne Lacy, Page 158 Books, Wake Forest, NC

He Who Drowned the World: A Novel
By Shelley Parker-Chan
(Flatiron Books, 9781250756155, $27.99, Sept. 12, Fiction)
"The perfect follow up to Who Became the Sun Parker-Chan's latest continues to expertly explore themes of power, desire, and gender queerness. An absolutely riveting and intricate sequel. This book will make you feel all the things!"
—Julia Deloria, Books Are Magic, Brooklyn, NY

The Heiress: A Novel
By Jennifer Weiner
"It is full of heart, humor, and hard truths."
—Beth Stroh, Viewpoint Books, Columbus, IN

Lauren Groff is at the height of her power as a writer. The Vaster is the perfect follow up to her critically acclaimed first novel, "The Fates of Men." It is a story of mental illness, domestic abuse, and the resilience of women. This book will be loved by fans of Groff's previous work and will introduce new readers to her incredible talent."
—Debra Ginsberg, DIESEL, A Bookstore, Santa Monica, CA

The Woman in the Window: A Novel
By A.J. Finlay
(Berkley, 9780593548030, $17, Sept. 12, Suspense)
"A fantastic blend of suspense, family relationships, and medical drama makes this book a winner. Mia is an utterly engaging narrator, and the plot twists will leave readers guessing until the final pages."
—Sarah Rettger, Porter Square Books, Cambridge, MA

The Serbian Giant: A Novel
By Mirjana K. Skofic
(Ashley Charles Books, 9781982188909, $27.99, Sept. 12, Fiction)
"Skofic's beauty is its unvarnished, raw honesty. It introduces the reader to the lives of one woman and one man, their love story and their journeys."
—Elizabeth Barnhill, Fabled Bookshop & Café, Waco, TX

The River We Remember: A Novel
By William Kent Krueger
(Atria Books, 9781982169695, $28, Sept. 12, Fiction)
"A fantastic blend of suspense, family relationships, and medical drama makes this book a winner. Mia is an utterly engaging narrator, and the plot twists will leave readers guessing until the final pages."
—Sarah Rettger, Porter Square Books, Cambridge, MA

The September House: A Novel
By Carissa Orlando
(Maryanne Miller: Amore, 9781641295215, $27, Sept. 12, Fiction)
"This was a ride with a seemingly unreliable narrator and a house fall of either real or imagined horrors. The September House is a story of mental illness, domestic abuse, and the resilience of women. This was an incredibly leprous novel."
—Lauren Nocte, Carissa Industry, Canada

Izzy is a young woman who feeds on the pleasure of the lowborn, and the terrifying knowledge of what is to come for the people you love. A read you won’t want to put down."
—Katie Varner, The Same Place, Chambers, OR

Fall of Ruin and Wrath
By Jennifer L. Armentrout
(St. Martin’s Griffin, 9781250757755, $30, Sept. 12, Fantasy)
"Zadie Smith is a literary genius. "Kakimoto is a literary genius. "The Heart of It All is an absolute must-read. It is a bridge to understand our modern times."
—Pat Balka, Books O’ Books, Grande, OR

The Breakaway: A Novel
By Jennifer Weiner
(Flatiron Books, 9781082042389, $28, Aug. 29, Fiction)
"A scintillating brain tour, trickly love triangle, emotionally honest family drama, and fascinating food for thought about body image all come together in this lucid swimmer road with something to say about the joys of early middle age."
—Jesse Post, Postmark Books, Rosendale, NY

While You Were Out: An Intimate Family Portrait of Mental Illness in an Era of Silence
By Meg Kissinger
(Orbit Books, 9781250757755, $30, Sept. 5, Nonfiction)
"Every child, every parent, every sibling — every one of us — must read this book. We all share the experience of losing someone to mental illness. We can take a step toward greater compassion by reading Meg’s insightful, personal story."
—Beth Stroh, Viewpoint Books, Columbus, OH

The Heiress: A Novel
By Jennifer Weiner
(Flatiron Books, 9781082042280, $28, Aug. 29, Fiction)
"A scintillating brain tour, trickly love triangle, emotionally honest family drama, and fascinating food for thought about body image all come together in this lucid swimmer road with something to say about the joys of early middle age."
—Jesse Post, Postmark Books, Rosendale, NY

The Vaster: A Novel
By Lauren Groff
(Riverhead, 9781250173835, $27, Sept. 12, Fiction)
"Lauren Groff is at the height of her power as a writer. The Vaster is the perfect follow up to her critically acclaimed first novel, "The Fates of Men." It is a story of mental illness, domestic abuse, and the resilience of women. This book will be loved by fans of Groff’s previous work and will introduce new readers to her incredible talent."
—Debra Ginsberg, DIESEL, A Bookstore, Santa Monica, CA

The Secrets of the New World: A Novel
By Hilary Leichter
(Morrow, 9781250186512, $27.99, Sept. 12, Fiction)
"This novel blew me away. Each successive story opens up the world a bit further, a dig deeper, much like the space-building theme at the collection’s center. I loved these four fables and their exploration of endings and beginnings."
—Suzanne Lacy, Page 158 Books, Wake Forest, NC

The Breakaway: A Novel
By Jennifer Weiner
(Flatiron Books, 9781082042389, $28, Aug. 29, Fiction)
"A scintillating brain tour, trickly love triangle, emotionally honest family drama, and fascinating food for thought about body image all come together in this lucid swimmer road with something to say about the joys of early middle age."
—Jesse Post, Postmark Books, Rosendale, NY

The Secret Hours: A Novel
By Hilary Leichter
(Morrow, 9781250186512, $27.99, Sept. 12, Fiction)
"This novel blew me away. Each successive story opens up the world a bit further, a dig deeper, much like the space-building theme at the collection’s center. I loved these four fables and their exploration of endings and beginnings."
—Suzanne Lacy, Page 158 Books, Wake Forest, NC